

MILNER CRAFT SERIES

Silk 'Paper' Creations

for the Fibre Artist

JUDITH PINNELL

Contents

Acknowledgements	6
About the author	7
Introduction	11
About the silks	13
What inspires me	19
Materials and equipment	21
Making silk 'paper' from tussah and bombyx	30
Manipulating and texturing the surface	38
Embellishing the surface	41
Moulding silk 'paper'	42
Throwster—the finer points	45
Using a satay stick	53
Adding impact to a project	55
Useful tips	65
Useful techniques	68

Projects

Notecard sachet	74
Drawstring receptacle	80
Bougainvillea basket	87
Silk chiffon wrap	89
Feathered and beaded theatre purse	93

Contributing artists	100
Glossary	110
Suppliers	111

Collar. The surface of the wet silk was manipulated with fingers to create an interesting texture. Bugle beads were sewn onto the picots formed around the outer edge. Small beads were sewn into the indents when the collar had dried.

23 x 28 cm (9 x 11 in)

